Vietnamese Authentic Sourdough Banh Mi

Sourdough has long been part of traditional Vietnamese bread making, but at La Saigon, we've reimagined it by blending time-honored techniques with modern ingredients to create our signature flavor.

Exceptional Coffee & Sustainable Sourcing

Our award-winning coffee comes from our own Rainforest Alliance-certified farm, free of harmful pesticides and focused on environmental stewardship.

Fair Treatment & Community Empowerment

We provide fair wages and safe conditions for our farmers, empowering their communities.

Quality & Responsibility in Every Cup

Each cup offers rich, aromatic coffee with a focus on sustainability and social responsibility, benefiting both you and the planet.

PAYING FOWARD

Hot chocolate & petite Banh mi

Only $5!

The Pay-Forward campaign means customers will cover the cost of the set but won't actually receive it. Instead, we'll bundle it up and ship it off to the Orphanage! How heartwarming is that?

LA SAIGON CAFE

Sourdough Oat Banh Mi

Take a bite!

“Bread is the king of the table and all else merely the court that surrounds the king”

Golden and freshly baked with a crisp oat crust and soft interior, each loaf pairs perfectly with honey-glazed dipping sauce and a hint of mint—an ideal start or snack.

About the sourdough Oat Banh Mi:

Introducing our Sourdough Oat Banh Mi: a fresh twist on the Vietnamese classic with tangy, chewy, artisanal sourdough oat bread.

Experience Pure Bliss with Our simple yet delicious Oat Bread!

RUM

OUR RUM SPEAKER EMBARKS ON A JOURNEY TO CUBA, SEEKING TO IMMERSE HIMSELF IN THE WORLD OF RUM AND CIGARS, DISCOVERING THE ESSENCE OF HIS TRUE PASSION.

Rum was created in the Caribbean, in the 17th century, by black slaves on sugarcane plantations, fermenting the molasses and distilling them.

- The oldest rum is The Harewood Rum 1780 manufactured anymore but the best
- Main rum producers are: Jamaica (Appleton, Myers's), Cuba (Havana Club, Bacardi), Guatemala (Zacapa), Australia and USA
- Loved and searched by pirates. Called: Kill-devil, rumbillion, Barbados water. Gold, brown and even black color.
